

Digital Marketing Intern

The Gig

Do you have a passion for social media and content creation? Well, have we got the internship opportunity for you! Arnold Street Media is currently seeking an intern to play an active role in assisting our motivated team in achieving a wide variety of digital marketing objectives.

Who we are

Arnold Street Media is a digital creative agency in downtown Toronto, but our services extend to businesses all across Canada. We specialize in generating unique and high-end content for companies of all sizes. Our team consists of talented photographers, graphic designers, video producers/editors, marketing specialists, content writers, and web developers who are all passionate about their unique crafts.

What you'll be Responsible for

- Web and blog content writing
- Engaging with clients' social media followings
- Photo and video shoot assisting possible

What you'll need to Succeed

- A proficiency in graphic design and/or photography is a bonus
- The ability to create writing content for a diverse group of clients
- A fervent commitment to providing work of the highest quality on all projects
- A strong sense of creativity, innovation, and reliability
- An optimistic attitude

Required Experience and Qualifications

- You must be completing a Bachelors degree in a field related to Communications

If you're excited about flexing your creative muscles with Arnold Street Media, please send 3 writing samples and a cover letter to Alannah@arnoldstreet.com. Only those qualified will be contacted.